Real Work on Currency Bill to Be Started Today

Today the ceal work of framing a currency bill will be begun by the Senate Banking and Currency Committee. The bearings that closed Saturday opened September 2. During that time upward of 100 representative men have been bearing and 2,000 pages of tealmony taken. Bankiers from all sections of the country have been before the committee Pinancial experts whose names are known throughout the entire country, callear professors, and economists have expounded their ideas. All sorts and kinds of views were submitted, but, it was not until within the last ten days that opinions began to crystalize. The principles upon which the bill will be found, each of them indicating material amendment of the House bill, are as follows:

resident or he Federal reserve bond, anks to have no representation. All provisions for savings bank descriments to be eliminated from the dministration bill. All profise earned above 5 per cent o, so to the government, to be applied in the outstanding national debt; Whether the notes authorized by the bill shall be guaranteed by the government, and whether or not the Federal and shall have the power to fix re-count rates, according to the needs any particular geographical divi-n, is a matter yet undetermined.

How long it will take for the com-ties to come together on the final in is problematical. Some members the committee believe the bill can reported within the next ten daya, conservative estimate, however, is vember 10.

Of course it would be odd if madam did not powder ber nose and readjust her headgear white her highball is being served. Wamen care more about the color than them in shades to match their gowns or errs or some feature, and one even asked for a cooktail to match her gown or errs or some feature, and one even asked for a cooktail to match her gown or errs or some feature, and one even have power of the women require straws—even with cookialle-feating arm.
